TWICE TRIED TO KILL HART

A Student's Mysterious Assailant Nearly Succeeded Last Night.

MOTIVE MAY BE REVENGE

The Injured Man Testified Against a Violent Character in a Robbery Case, and This Man Is Now Out of Jail—Attacked in Dark Places.

Two attempts to assassinate Clarence Hart have been made within the past ten days by a mysterious colored man.

Mr. Hart is about twenty years of age, a student, and lives with his parents at No. 1840 Fifteenth street northwest.

He is a stylishly-dressed and intelligent young man, and on the evening of the 21st he was able to call at police headquarters to-day and relate his experience to Inspector Hollenberger and his detectives.

Hart was first tackled by the murderous man last week. He was proceeding quietly along Tenth street about 10 o'clock at night. When between Q and R streets a muscular-looking colored fellow, who had been concealed in the shadows of a nearby building, stepped before him, and, with an oath, exclaimed:

"Now, I've got you!"

At the same time he raised aloft the gleaming blade of a dirk knife and tried to plunge it into the young man's body.

CUT ON THE HANDS.

Mr. Hart is an athlete, and, as quick as thought, seeing his danger, he struck the negro a stunning blow on the neck.

It staggered his man, but he quickly recovered himself and rushed at the student again with uplifted knife. This time the blade descended, and entered the back of Hart's hand. Again and again did the would-be assassin stab at Hart, who received the blows on his hand in attempting to ward them off. Finally the assailant ran away, as several pedestrians approached.

The matter was reported to police headquarters on the following morning, and nothing more was seen of the mysterious thing until last night.

While approaching his home, about 11 o'clock, the second attempt was made. The streets were deserted and gloomy as Mr. Hart passed along T street, between Sixteenth street and New Hampshire avenue northwest. He did not see a human shadow, which was dogging his footsteps and dodging behind trees in his rear. When an unusually quiet spot had been reached, his former assailant, for him it proved to be, closed up the distance between them, and rushing up to Mr. Hart from behind, seized him by the collar.

SLASHED HIS WRIST.

"I've got you again," he hissed, grabbing the young man by the throat to prevent him from giving an alarm, "and you know I am going to kill you this time."

Hart tried to break away, but was held in a grip of iron, and thrown heavily to the ground.

Drawing a razor, the thug commenced to slash away at Hart's throat, making a number of cuts on the right side of the neck.

Hart's hand, again and again did the negro and tried to get up. As he did so, he received a stunning blow under the eye, which leads him to believe the fellow had an accomplice.

After a hard effort Hart gained his feet and shouted lustily for help. The colored man, still intent on killing him, exclaimed:

"You can't get away this time, I'm going to kill you."

DETECTIVES AT WORK.

With this he again slashed viciously at Hart with his razor, making several cuts which penetrated through the clothing to his skin. The heavy overcoat he wore no doubt saved his life. The negro then fled. At police headquarters today he showed his wounds and the gashes in his garments.

Mr. Hart believes his assailant is a colored man against whom he testified in a robbery case about one year ago. The thief went to jail on Hart's testimony, and threatened to kill him after he had served his term. He is out now. The detectives are investigating.

HEADS FOR THE BASKET.

Postmasters to Be Decapitated for Pernicious Activity in Politics.

The Postoffice Department has complaints against fifty or sixty Presidential postmasters throughout the country, charged with violating the order of the President prohibiting them from taking an active part in politics. Most of these cases are in the West, particularly Illinois and Iowa.

It is hardly probable that the Postmaster General will take action against all the offenders, but deal only with the most flagrant cases. The others will be left for the hatchet of the Postmaster General appointed by Mr. McKinley.

The terms of office of a number of them will not expire for a year or two after March 4 next.

Bogus Divorce Suit Withdrawn.

The divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Florence E. Boggs of Brookland, was withdrawn by her attorney today. The papers were filed on Friday last against her husband, James H. Boggs. Mrs. Boggs alleged cruelty and infidelity, naming Lucy Shook, alias Ivy Howard, as co-defendant. The cause of the withdrawal of the suit is not given.

Argument in Lake Front Case.

The argument in the Chicago lake front case was resumed this morning before Commissioner Lamoreaux. Judge Wilson, of Chicago, spoke at length upon the survey of the plat in controversy and the boundary lines.

Petition for Executor.

Isabella Wilkie, of Toronto, Canada, today petitioned that the American Security and Trust Company, of this city, be appointed executor of the estate of Robert Grant, her brother.

Sidewalk Ordered.

Cement sidewalks will be laid, by direction of the Commissioners, in front of No. 1612 Rhode island avenue, in front of No. 1740 N street northwest, and in front of No. 1237 Tenth street northwest. The work is to be done under the permit system.

Called by a Spirit.

State-Writing Found in the Late Robert Whitehead's Effects.

The funeral of Robert A. Whitehead, the proprietor of the "Old Curiosity Shop," at No. 804 D street, who committed suicide Sunday night by shooting himself at his boarding-house, No. 727 Eleventh street, took place this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, at the residence of his brother, Jeremiah H. Whitehead, No. 325 Delaware avenue northwest.

The services, which were private, only a few intimate friends being present, were conducted by Rev. L. H. York, the evangelist. The relatives of the suicide are very sensitive, and desired as little publicity as possible, and especially on account of the peculiar religious beliefs of Mr. Whitehead.

It had been his often expressed desire to be cremated, and it was first decided that this should be done, but this morning Mr. Jeremiah Whitehead decided that his brother should have a burial in his family lot at Glenwood cemetery, and the remains were laid to rest there.

None of the dead man's relatives shared his religious views, and after much discussion refused to permit the spiritualists to conduct the ceremonies.

In looking over the effects of the deceased yesterday his former family discovered a slate similar to those used by mediums, upon which was written, "Awaiting you, George Howell." Howell was a very intimate friend of Whitehead and died several years ago.

Further than this nothing was found in his effects to indicate the cause of his committing the deed.

Received for Redemption.

The national bank notes received today for redemption amounted to $181,879.
